MISCHIEF-MAKERS.

Oh could there in this world be found
Some little spot of happy ground
Where village pleasures might be found
Without the village tattling,
How doubly blessed that place would be,
Where all might dwell in liberty
And feel themselves forever free
Of gossip's endless prattling!

If such a spot was really known,
Dame Peace might claim it as her own,
And in it she might fix her throne,
Forever and forever;

There, like a queen, might reign and live,
Where every one would soon forgive
The little slights they might receive,
And be offended never.

The mischief-makers that remove
Far from our hearts the warmth of love,
And lead us all to disapprove

What gives another pleasure;
They seem to take one's part, when
They've heard our cause, unkindly then
They soon retell them all again,

Mixed with poisonous measure.

THE CYNTHIANA NEWS

CYNTHIANA, KY.

THURSDAY, :: Oct., 24, 1867

A. J. MOREY, EDITOR.

The city of Cynthiana is growing; her trade has increased, and her borders are extending. New additions are being added to its body corporate, monthly and quarterly. We had supposed that we were able to keep pace with the number of houses in course of erection this year, but we find ourselves behind in this particular.

And with all the busy hum of the laboring masses throwing material together for domiciles, yet as fast as they increase, so much faster and greater is the demand. Rents are going up and business is growing stronger, and the credit system growing shorter, and if greenbacks were somewhat plentiful, the world at large would be surprised at the progress that the "City of Maidens" would be able to make in another year.

Cynthiana is emphatically a white man's town. Here a man receives a hearty welcome if he has a white face and a white heart, and will be encouraged and preferred above all niggers, let them come from whatever clime of God's footstool. The people of this country take no stock in free-niggers, negro equality, black republican radicalism. They continue to live after the manner and principles laid down by our old Revolutionary Father's as near as possible. They are a tolerant, democratic people.

As there seems to be a backwardness on the part of capitalists to take hold and build dwellings, mechanics and laborers will be compelled to erect houses for themselves.

Most any man can raise two or three hundred dollars, and he who can should purchase a building lot immediately and make arrangements to put a house upon it.

As soon as the lot is obtained, employ an architect to furnish your plans and specifications of the kind of house you want, and the amount of money it will cost when finished for your wife and little ones to move into. Sleep upon the proposition one night, and when you arise in the morning tell your wife all about the building business, and listen attentively to all she may have to say, and if you can harmonize, act immediately, and make an effort to have a home or yourself and family.

You have no money!

Well, go to a capitalist and lay your plans before him. Tell him you own a lot, and intend to build a home, and desire to borrow the money of him to consummate the purpose; and to secure him, propose to give him a mortgage on the property. The money is certain to come.

A mortgage is a poor man's friend, and every man should enlighten himself as to its nature.

If you cannot find a man with money to loan, in this country of your acquaintance, come and see the editor of the "News," and he will put you on the right track.

"Honesty is the best policy," should be the guide of all men, and especially young men, during life.

Straws show which way the winds blow. Little acts taken together form the character. If an article is purchased on credit, and you pledge your honor to faithfully discharge the debt, be certain to liquidate it, at the moment of agreement, let it be ever so small. Men who pay attention to small matters, and make for themselves a character for promptness and honesty, need have no fear as to their success in life; or about their ability to obtain loans on mortgages.

Industry, economy and sobriety will lead to wealth and health; and every man, young or old, who has, or has not, a wife and family, should adopt a line of duty commensurate with the above ideas. Then it would not be long before a home could be made and saved to all who need one.

Save your money, and don't throw it away for whisky and beer.

Buy nothing that you do not need, and be careful to put everything that you own to good use.

Don't work one day, and loaf, or hunt, or fish the next, but pull up steadily and regularly every working day, at whatever you can find to do; and be certain to get your money, and take it home and place it in the hands of your wife. We say this because we know that women are better bankers than men, especially a portion of those that we wot of just now.

Follow our advice in this thing, and we will insure every man in Cynthiana and out of it, too, a good home in five years.

To unmarried men of our country, we would like to say a few words only. Men of this stripe are not supposed to be interested to any great extent in the affairs of the world, and as they care but little for mankind, as a matter of course, mankind cares but little for them. Let them put themselves in harness and then they can be expected to receive a large portion of sympathy; do this, and then all the good things of this life shall be added.

To the speculator, we say, tell the truth, and observe the ten commandments as near as possible; treat strangers kindly, and cease to talk about the impossibility of certain propositions. Pray to mammon, and collect your quarterage on rents, and your interest on money loaned, and be very careful to read the history of old Shylock, yearly, that you may never get into the same difficulty that carried him down beneath the waves of adversity. Finally, remember that Cynthiana is a growing city, and that energetic and enterprising men have said that no place in Kentucky is better situated for trade, and that it will increase to more than ordinary dimensions.

DAVID WALK.

The dry goods business has become in this city, more than a common trade. It has taken captive some of our best men, who have embarked their all in prospective speculations, with an energy and spirit, which leaves but little doubt as to the final triumph over dry goods, finance, and the ragged world. Men of enterprise are bound to succeed. They have the element in and about them. Such men don't wait till road is macadamized before they travel upon it, but they feel able to paddle their own canoe. Of this style of men, we might class the Stone Front firm, Messrs Cuson, Megibben & Kimbrough, who have put up a magnificent building on Main street, and established a large dry goods house, in this city, and have imported a splendid stock of goods which they sell at New York prices. Their goods are of every grade, from the fairest fabrics with the highest known prices to the lowest and common priced articles.

At this house a lady or gentleman can be furnished with every kind of goods for wearing apparel and have them made up on short notice. Mrs. Kennard attends to the ladies dress making department, and Mr. Shawhan to the gentlemen's dress business.

They give good fits, and fine suits cheap. The clerks in the house are active, gentlemanly, good-looking and accommodating. They take pleasure in paying attention to the ladies that visit the Stone Front, and it is said that none but good-looking ladies go there. The Stone Front has become an attractive place to visit. Go there at all times of the day, and you will always find a crowd. If you want to see a friend, especially a lady friend, that is the place to look for her. Individuals are coming from every quarter of the country to trade at the Stone Front.

The other evening we noticed a large box of dry goods from the Stone Front going by express to parties in Paris. Goods are marked down every week at the Stone Front. Call and see for yourselves.

From the Christian Advocate.

A New Way to Pay Old Debts.
ELDER D. WALK, OF PARIS, KY.

This gentleman was once a Methodist preacher, and member of the Kentucky Conference. During his connection with the Kentucky Conference he purchased books from the Southern Methodist Publishing House amounting to $57,40, for which he gave his note, dated April 6, 1858. He also purchased books at the Louisville Depository, for the payment of which he offered his wife's watch at the Conference at Newport, Ky., in 1860. I, however, declined his offer, and simply held his note for the amount.

On the 25th of September, having learned that he is the pastor of a large and wealthy congregation of Reformers in Paris, Ky., I wrote to him kindly, and asked him when he could pay me. For the information of all concerned, I publish his reply. The claim he makes of $1,500 due him from the Church, is only the failure to receive his full allowance, as a preacher on the circuits he filled. Such deficiencies occur frequently with preachers.

A. H. Bedford.

Paris, Ky., 6th Oct., 1867.

Rev. A. H. Bedford—Dear Sir:—Yours of the 25th ult. to hand, and contents noted. In answer to your query, "when can I pay the note?" I answer with great emphasis, never! You might just as well save yourself all trouble on this subject, for beyond this letter I shall never pay the slightest attention to anything you or any other person can say or do concerning the matter.

The Methodist Church, South, owes me to-day $1,500 in back pay, for hard and faithful labor performed in various fields, and when you teach your people common honesty, and the necessity of regarding their solemn obligations, I will talk to you about the aforesaid notes.

I am not the minion of a Methodist Bishop to-day, and I defy your power. Your church has tried to ruin me, now suppose it tries again! I am owing the Southern Methodist Church anything. My resolution has long since been taken, and is firm and unalterable. Perhaps you might get it by suing me. Suppose you try it. Any letter that comes to me in the future, touching the business, will be thrown into the fire as soon as its character shall be ascertained. With due respect,

DAVID WALK.

The Louisville Courier in noticing the seizure of the distillery belonging to the Kentucky Bourbon Company, situated at Louisville, says it was done under the 23d and 25th sections of the act of Congress of July 23d, 1866. A violation of either of these sections works a forfeiture of all the whisky, machinery and apparatus found on the premises.

By the 23d section, rectifiers are required to pay a special tax.

The 25th section prohibits the carrying on of any other business on the premises where whisky is distilled.

It seems that the Bourbon Company had been making flour on the premises.

The attention of our friends is respectfully called to the above.

The Cincinnati Enquirer suggests that the Democracy should celebrate their victory in Ohio, on the Suspension Bridge, at Covington, and that the people of Kentucky should join with them. We are in for the celebration. State your time and give us notice and the Democracy of Harrison will come down.

Special Notice

The friends and patrons will please accept the sincere thanks of the proprietors of the Stone Front, for their kind and liberal patronage; with the full assurance to those who will favor us with a call, that prices and quality will always be warranted as low as the lowest, and the best of attention given. No pains, time or cost has been spared in the selection of goods, and the stock is not surpassed by any.

CUSON, MEGIBBEN & KIMBROUGH.

A CARD TO INVALIDS.

A Clergyman, while residing in South America as a missionary, discovered a safe and simple remedy for the cure of nervous weakness, early decay, diseases of the urinary and seminal organs, and the whole train of disorders brought on by benefit and violent hips. Great numbers have been cured by this noble remedy. Prompted by a desire to benefit the afflicted and unfortunate, I will send the recipe for preparing and using this medicine in a sealed envelope, to any one who needs it, free of charge. Address, JOSEPH T. INMAN; Station D, Bible House, New York City.

THE TRUTH ABOUT

DYSPEPSIA.

Whoever says that dyspepsia is incurable, a—that is to say, makes an egregious mistake. More than ten thousand aggravated cases have been cured by Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, while the number that have been prevented from coming to a head, by the same means, is incalculable. In this season of the year, when the appetite is sometimes too vigorous for the comfort and safety of the stomach, indigestion is most prevalent and most distressing. Is the appetite to be balked to accommodate the digestive organs? Not so; for then the frame would lack its due proportion of nutriment. The thing to be done is to strengthen the stomach, tone the liver, and put the bowels in perfect order. Nothing will do this so effectively, so rapidly, so quietly, so pleasantly, as Hostetter's Bitters. This potent preparation trims and balances the system, and clothes it, as were, with defensive armor. Chronic dyspepsia, liver complaint and fever and ague are never known to attack those who are wise enough to invoke the aid of this great preventive.

BLUE GRASS FARM

FOR SALE.

THE Farm on which I now reside is for sale. It is situated four miles south of Cynthiana, half a mile from Lair's Station, on the K. C. R. R., at which point there is a post office, express office, depot, saw mill and two excellent grist mills that manufacture the best quality of flour and meal. It is within 3 hours ride of Cincinnati, and 1½ of Lexington. It contains about 175 acres, one hundred acres well timbered. The remainder cleared and in the highest state of cultivation. The fencing all in good order. The improvements consist of a comfortable dwelling, partly frame and partly log, weatherboarded and plastered and painted, containing six rooms, cook-house and all necessary out buildings, including two large stables, (with lots for feed,) large enough to house and feed 75 miles at a time which can be done without going out of doors, as there is a large wide feed room extending the whole length of the stable, in which there is a cutting box run by horse power, with capacity and strength enough to cut a large quantity of provender in a short time. There is also a young orchard of select fruit of various kind now bearing. The farm is supplied with abundance of pure water for all purposes, as there is upon it a number of never failing springs (some of them near the dwelling,) and South Licking which runs along one side of it. Any one wishing to purchase such a farm, would do well to call and examine for themselves, as the place will be sold for a reasonable price, the payments made easy and if desired a part of the money can be run a considerable length of time at moderate interest.

I also desire to sell 400 acres of land which lies in Lewis county, Missouri. Said land is situated about 12 miles from Palmyra on the road leading from there to Montecello, and about 16 miles from the Mississippi river, about one half of it timbered land, the timber excellent, the hallow prairie of good quality, a little rolling and dry, is in a good neighborhood, and is surrounded by old settlers and finely improved farms. There is a large handsome brick church and school house in sight of the land. Also a small village and post office near by. Price reasonable, payments easy and made to suit the ability and convenience of purchasers. For further particulars call on

You will find the largest and best assortment of cloths, cassimers and vestings, at J. H. Shawhan's.

Mr. Thos. Hill has commenced his brick Livery Stable on Pike street.

Mrs. Oxley has purchased the residence of C. B. Cook on Pleasant street.

Col. John Hogg offers his stock of the life of Morgan, by Gen. Duke, at half price. Call and get a copy; they are cheap.

We notice that C. B. Cook, has nearly finished his new mill near this city. It presents a very respectable appearance. We congratulate him for his energy and enterprise.

Lewis Day, Esq., has finished the brick work on his new business house on the corner of Pike and Walnut and is now about ready to put the roof on.

From appearances we should say that the bank building, especially the stone work, was advancing backwards. We suppose that is a peculiar style people have; but we don't admire the style.

Under shirts, over shirts, drawers, gloves, neck ties, handkerchiefs, cloth brushes, shoe brushes, etc., etc., at J. H. Shawhan's.

D. A. Givens is about putting up a new business house on Pike street, which will be two stories high. It would look better were it made three stories.

Last Tuesday an Irishman, whose name we did not learn, was thrown from a handcar, while passing Robertson's Station, and had his back broken, and his skull fractured. He is dead doubtless, by this time.

The nicest varieties of hats and caps, and the best boots and shoes are kept J. H. Shawhan.

A trotting race has been made up between Dr. Snedeker's bay horse, "Edsal," and J. M. Smith's sorrel horse, "Stonewall Jackson." They are to trot mile heats, best three in five, over J. M. Smith's track near Cynthiana, on Saturday, November 9th 1867; for five hundred dollars.

The attention of our readers is directed to the advertisement of Carpenter & Brothers, in another column. They are prepared to furnish lumber of all kinds to customers in this city, and at Cincinnati prices.

The "hue and cry" that many grumblers raised as to the deficiency in the corn crop, &c., has very perceptibly ceased. It is our opinion that certain people would not be satisfied if they were sentenced to be hung.

The Grand Lodge of the Masonic Fraternity are in session at Louisville. Grand Master, I. T. Martin, presiding.

Go to J. H. Shawhan's if you want any clothing, where you will find the largest and best assortment of clothing ever brought to this city.

Let us suggest to our citizens who have town lots to sell, that they should be careful not to dispose of them to speculators, but to actual settlers, and have it understood a house must be built, or the sale void. And another thing, be careful that you don't put a higher value on your property than the public do. There is nothing so injurious to the prosperity and advancement of a city, as a set of swell-headed property holders, who ask more for what they own than reason justifies.

Last week our young friend Hub Kid, yeoman of busses, at Lexington, went out gunning the other day and killed two ducks very dead. They were said to have been "Dead Ducks," for they were proved to have been tame, and on their owners plantation, at the time they became "deceased." Such is our information.

On last Friday the young gentlemen of Cynthiana, took a tilt at each other in a game of Base Ball. There are two clubs in this place, named the "Licking" and "Star." A challenge had been passed and accepted. The weather was excellent, and the young men active and merry. It was fine fun and bully excitement. The following is the result of the game:

We are pleased to notice that our enterprising fellow-citizens, Jno. L. Shawhan and W. N. Atkins, have recently purchased of Dr. Peters, his mill property, situated in Scott county, on Elkhorn, between Lexington and Newtown, for 7,000 dollars. They intend to establish a first-class distillery, from which a stream of never ceasing "Oh, be joyful" shall flow at the rate of 16 barrels per day. Shawhan and Atkins are Kentucky gentlemen of the "rare auld stock," and we can heartily command them to our friends in Scott, as worthy of their respect and confidence.

Ladies, Clergymen, school teachers, farmers, students and all others who possess energy, are wanted to assist in canvassing every town and county in the country, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered. For particulars address:

BOOK AGENTS WANTED

To solicit orders for a new Illustrated

Bible Dictionary.

(complete in one volume.)

Edited by Dr. Wm. Smith, classical examiner of the University of London.

The Dictionary embodies the results of the most recent study, and investigation, of about 65 of the most eminent and advanced Biblical scholars now living. Clergymen of different denominations approve it, and regard it as the best work of its kind in the English language, and one which ought to be in the hands of every bible reader in the land.

In circulating this work, agents will find a pleasant and profitable employment. The numerous objections which are usually encountered in selling ordinary works will not exist with this. But on the contrary, encouragement and friendly aid will attend the agent, making his labor agreeable, useful and lucrative.

Ladies, Clergymen, school teachers, farmers, students and all others who possess energy, are wanted to assist in canvassing every town and county in the country, to whom the most liberal inducements will be offered. For particulars address:
